

STORGERA RADIO CONVERSATION/AUDIO JOURNAL ENTRY
BY SEAN MITTAL

INT. RADIO STATION RECORDING ROOM - DAY

SOPHIA KALLAS

So in regards to the different races of Storgera, the two big ones we want to discuss our relationship with is the Titans and Humanity. Christopher, you want to discuss your opinion?

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

Yes, the Titans aren't exactly the nicest batch of folks around the Storgera, but also not completely evil either. They have their imperfections, but I'm sure some among them must be good people. Too bad none of them are nice enough for us to trust.

SOPHIA KALLAS

True, and the same can be said for our fellow humans as well, correct?

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

Yes, though humans tend to be less asshole-ish than the Titans for sure. What they lack in impressive power and feats, they make up for in civility and decency. It's not really the greatest trade off I've ever seen, but hey, it's better than being like the Titans.

SOPHIA KALLAS

I heard that, and another advantage besides being less egotistical than the Titans, humans are capable of ascension as well, and maybe even surpassing the Titans. So despite being frail and mortal to begin with, Humans are Capable of ascending to great height equal to that of the gods through trials and tribulations of strength, such as competing with our racers.

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

I couldn't have said it better myself. But of course, Titans don't take that very well.

SOPHIA KALLAS

In fact, didn't Tasia say that the Titans use to give her a hard time back when she was growing up?

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

I do believe so yes, she stated that the Titans of Storgera use to be real assholes to her verbally.

SOPHIA KALLAS

But that doesn't mean all titans are like that. I knew a couple of Titans that treated me really well, like an equal, and this was before I started gaining the skills that I have now. So they aren't all bad.

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

But that about our other friends and their thoughts and feelings on the two big species or races of Storgera?

SOPHIA KALLAS

Unfortunately, our friends couldn't make it here on the radio interview today, but I did get memo's from each of them to pass along how they feel about the Titans and Humans of our big city.

SOPHIA KALLAS (CONT'D)

As stated, Tasia was not treated nicely by the Titans, but then again, she also stated that during her time as a street urchin, she also gave the Titans "Tit for Tat".

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

Huh? What the heck does that mean!?

SOPHIA KALLAS

It means that she use to get back at Titans when they use to quote "Screw her over" and whatnot.

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

Are you sure SHE wasn't being the antagonist towards the Titans? She also stated that she was quite the deviant as well when it came to progressing her life and how she got to where she is now.

SOPHIA KALLAS

Christopher! How can you say that about her?! She's our friend!

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

I'm not saying that she use to be a Malicious person, none of us were. By all the gods if any one of us did anything truly morally out-of-line, we would've held them accountable for sure. However, that doesn't mean that we did things that weren't, how can I put this subtly, "Unorthodox".

SOPHIA KALLAS

I guess that's true. Well, other than that, Michani states that Titans are well, "eh" in his mind.

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

"Eh"? That's seriously it? You mean our master tinker doesn't care to say much for these guys?

SOPHIA KALLAS

No I guess, that or he doesn't like sharing his innermost thoughts too much. Probably a good idea to keep him out of trouble.

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

Herma is too young to really care for the whole "Titans and Humans" thing, right?

SOPHIA KALLAS

Well, she is a smart girl, but I think it's in her best interest interest to stay out of the whole "Race Drama" or Storgera.

CHRISTOPHER LAMBROS

Probably a good idea, I'll give you that. She really doesn't need the stress that comes with matters like this, and that's all I'll say about that.

THE END
